our aid the night she ⁻¹⁶⁻passed away have lead us to wanting to give back to our community.

Infant loss affects 1 in 4 families, through mis carriage, still birth or infant loss. October is Infant Loss Awareness month. Last year we held our innaugural Gift of Baby Elena 5K at Pinafore Park, where we raised close to 4,000.00 (after expenses) to put towards creating comfort boxes that have been mailed all over Canada, for families who have lost a child or infant, as well as 5 kits for the STEGH to provide to families in the moment. A total of 22 kits have been distributed, as well as 2 owl heart monitors for families who have experienced a loss and are losing a baby following this loss. Owllet is cost approximate 350.00-400.00 and can provide a piece of mind.

This year, any proceeds from our 5K will go towards the comfort boxes, purchasing 2-4 owl heart monitors, and a cash donation to STEGH, Neo-natal unit, hopefully for an infant transporter (if one has not been purchased) or whatever is needed. (Please find The Gift of Baby Elena on Facebook for more info.)

Safety, Love, & Butterfly Wings
Annual Butterfly Release

Saturday September 21st 1:30 to 3pm
Lions Club Celebration Pavilion – Pinafore Park

The event is about how together with our community we are able create the transformation necessary to ensure safety, love, and equity.

The event begins with a welcome and presentation of what has happened in the last year in the service of women, girls, and boys who have found safety, support, and hope as result of community support and kindness. We'll share the profound difference that safety and love makes for families.

Then we'll look ahead and make our shared commitment to continue to stand together with families as they pursue their hopes for safer lives by releasing butterflies. Each butterfly represents a woman or child that will find safety and counsel 24 hours a day in the year ahead at Women's Place Elgin's Emergency Shelter.

In advance of the event, we'll be asking people in St. Thomas & across Elgin County to sponsor butterflies (at a cost of $30 each) to show their support for women who have been abused and their children.
