NEW BUSINESS

New Application for Public Art Review

The Committee reviewed an application from Railway City Tourism regarding Mural Art in the Alley at 632 Talbot Street. The Committee thinks it will be a welcomed show piece adding to the downtown core.

Tim – no issues with mixing up the displayed public art from the railway theme. Forward thinking/looking and more contemporary looking to draw young people.

Laura – the artist is being predominantly used right now and is very talented as a regional artist. No issues with the concept, like the proposed drawing.

John – no issues with the proposed designs, like the idea of something different downtown.
